

Waterhouse

Wealth of Experience

Patricia Lovett-Reid, Hons. FCSI, CFP

Patricia Lovett-Reid, Senior Vice President of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc., is one of Canada's leading and respected authorities on personal finance. Patricia is the host of MoneyTalk, a national prime-time television program on personal finance, airing every Monday at 8:00 pm (ET) on Business News Network. As well, she is a regular market commentator for Business News Network, Canada AM, CTV NEWSNET and CP24.

A sought-after speaker and commentator on wealth management, Patricia has co-authored the national best selling books Live Well, Retire Well: Strategies for a Rich Life and a Richer Retirement and Retirement Strategies for Women. Other publications include Surprise! You're Wealthy: A Woman's Guide to Protecting Her Wealth, as well as Take Charge Now: A Woman's Guide to Personal and Family Finance. In January 2008, she released her 6th book entitled Get Real: 26 Canadian Women Share the Secret to Authentic Success.

For her commitment in educating the public on personal finance matters, Patricia has been recognized with the 2007 Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100TM Award in the Trailblazers and Trendsetters category. As well, The Women's Post has named Patricia as one of Canada's Top 25 Women To Watch on their 2008 Women of the Year list.

In addition, Patricia has taken the role of Trusted Wealth Advisor, with Indigo Chapters, which includes reviewing financial publications and making book recommendations. She holds the designation of Certified Financial Planner and is a Honourary Fellow of the Canadian Securities Institute.

